EXCELLON REPORTS LABOUR ACTION AT PLATOSA

Toronto, Ontario – March 7, 2022 – Excellon Resources Inc. (TSX:EXN, NYSE:EXN, FRA:E4X2) (“Excellon” or the “Company”) reports that the Sindicato Nacional Minero Metalúrgico (the “Platosa Union”) has commenced a labour action at the Platosa Mine in Durango, Mexico.

“We have had a constructive relationship with the Platosa Union for many years and earlier last week we had agreed in principle on the terms of the 2022 collective bargaining arrangement following numerous concessions,” stated Brendan Cahill, President and CEO. “Unfortunately, the agreement was reneged on and, despite our additional concessions, a labour action was ordered. Our workers at Platosa have one of the most generous compensation structures in the Mexican mining industry and have benefitted greatly from both improved metal prices and improved productivity in recent years. We hope they also understand the challenges we are facing this year at Platosa. As always, we continue to remain open to discussions and hope for a positive resolution in the near term.”
